INSPIRATION

ACADEMIC STATUS

Servant of God
Archbishop Mar Ivanios OIC

Bethany College of Nursing draws its inspiration from the Servant of God, Archbishop Mar Ivanios OIC, founder of Bethany Congregations, who has shown us an effective way of building up our society as a better place to live in. He believed like many of his contemporaries that the upliftment of the society can be brought about by the presence of a group of educated people only.

- Bethany College of Nursing has been established with the approval from:
- Department of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of C.G. vide letter no. f.16-08/2007/Nine/55 dated 29 January 2008.
 - The Indian Nursing Council, New Delhi, C. G. Nursing Council, Raipur.
 - Affiliated to C.G Ayush and Health Science University, Raipur.
 - Bethany College of Nursing is also associated with Apollo BSR Hospital, Nehru Nagar, Bhilai and Jyoti Hospital, Charoda, Bhilai. District Hospital, Durg for providing Clinical practice for our Students.
 - The College also has tie-ups with the well known institutions in India and abroad.
 - Our affiliation assures the students that the institution operates on sound financial basis, has a programme for the students, employs qualified teachers, has adequate facilities and equipments, uses approved recruitment and admission policies and advertises its courses truthfully.

VISION

The Vision of Bethany College of Nursing is "to form nurses who Care with Charity and Commitment!" uniquely contributing as God's delegates of charity, care, compassion and healing in this world. Florence Nightingale, the icon of nursing profession depicts a nurse, as "the one who devote herself completely to the welfare of those who committed to her care".
